Linden Kildare High School

Linden, Texas

Volume 25

Today we are living during a time when everything is changing. This year our staff's goal was to change along with the time. We hope this book will be different and exciting.

We would like to present the TIGER TRACKS to you, the student body of Linden-Kildare High School. The accomplishments, joys, sorrows, and other events are yours. We have just recorded them for you.

When I Was A Freshman . . .

I was at the bottom of the ladder.
I was among many, hoping the fellow in front of me knew where he was going.

I was Proud, Excited, and even a little scared.

I knew that it would be tough,

But I could make it as the others
before me had done.

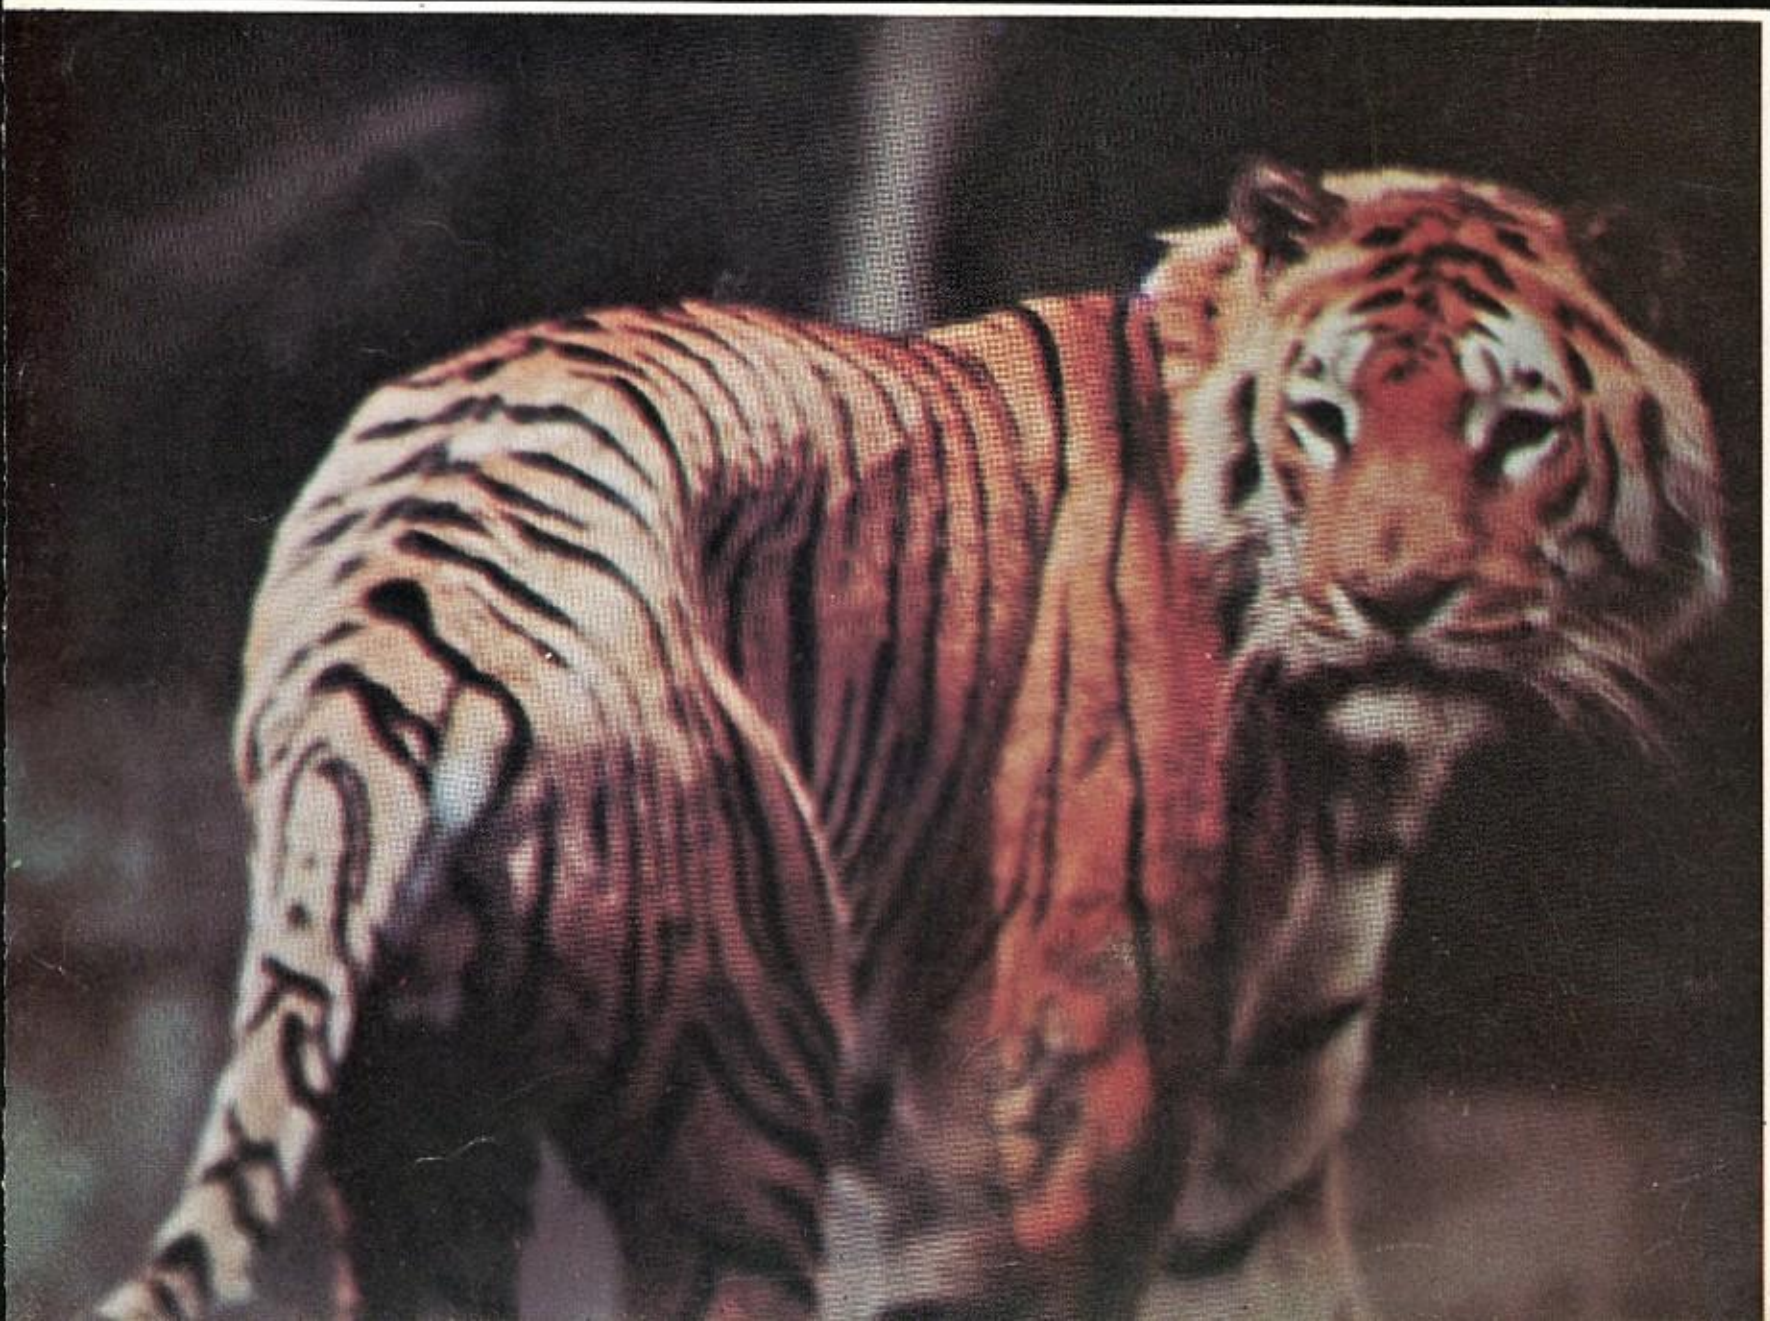

When I Was A Sophomore . . .

I was intelligent, likable, remarkably mature for my age,
and completely unconquerable, but no one seemed to notice.

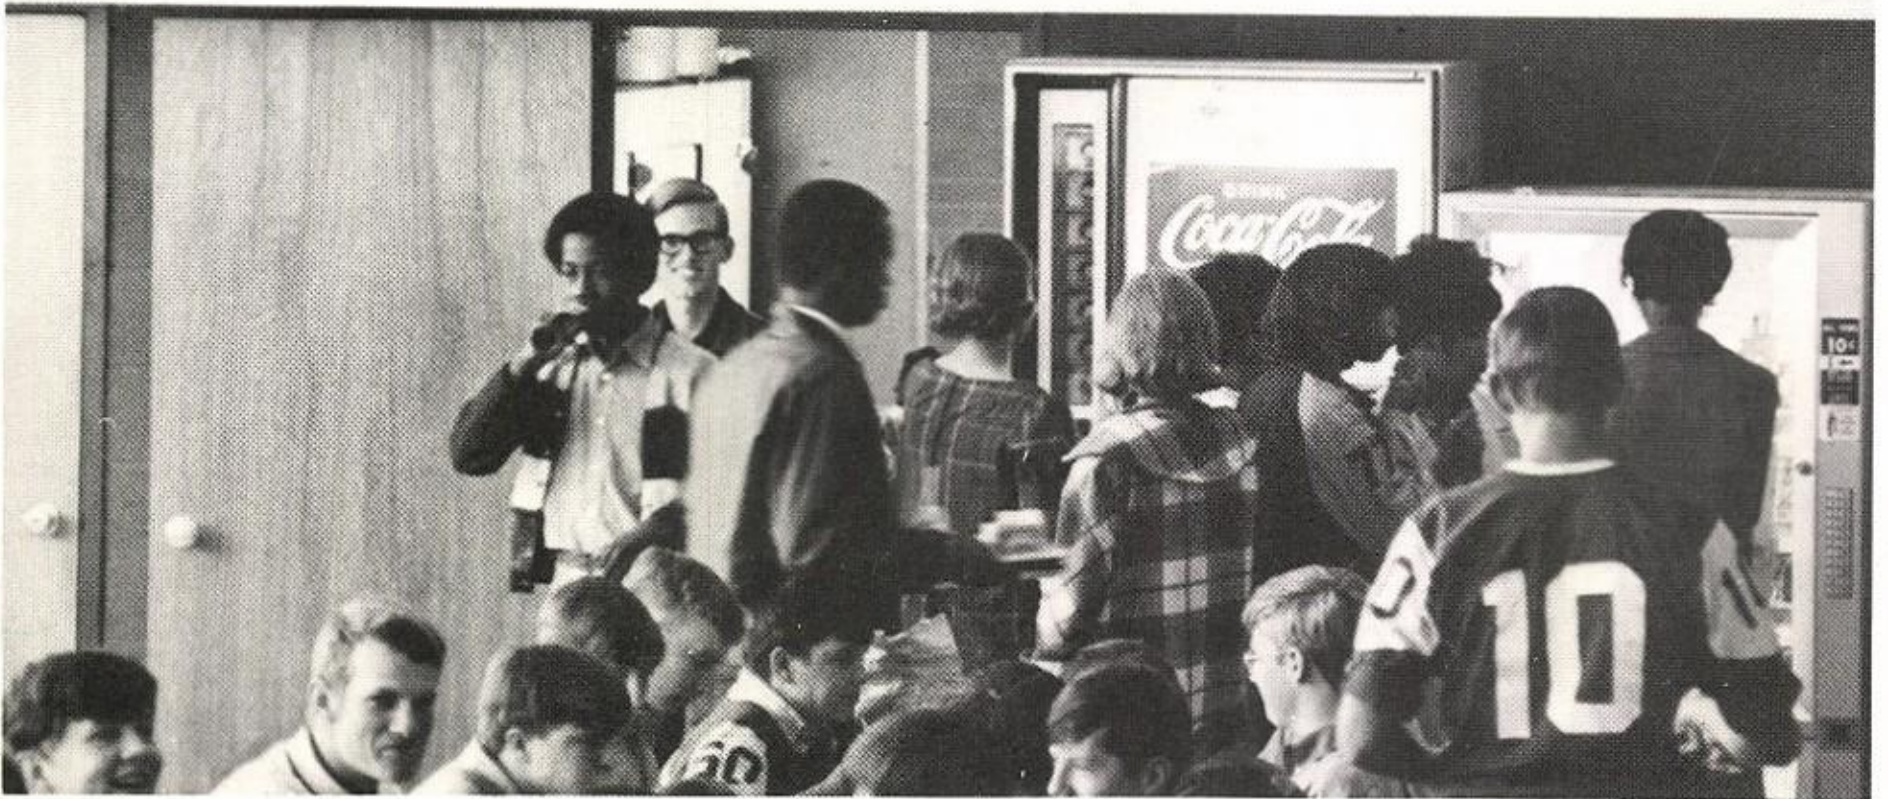

I must admit
I had my doubts and disillusionments

But nothing could daunt me long ...
The comforting hum of routine
drowned out my fears,
And I sang along with laughter and groans

But In It All I Learned The Ropes,
and through it all I stubbornly survived.

When I Was A Junior . . .

I was caught in the middle,
a precarious position,
not low man or high man,
just "mediocre" man.

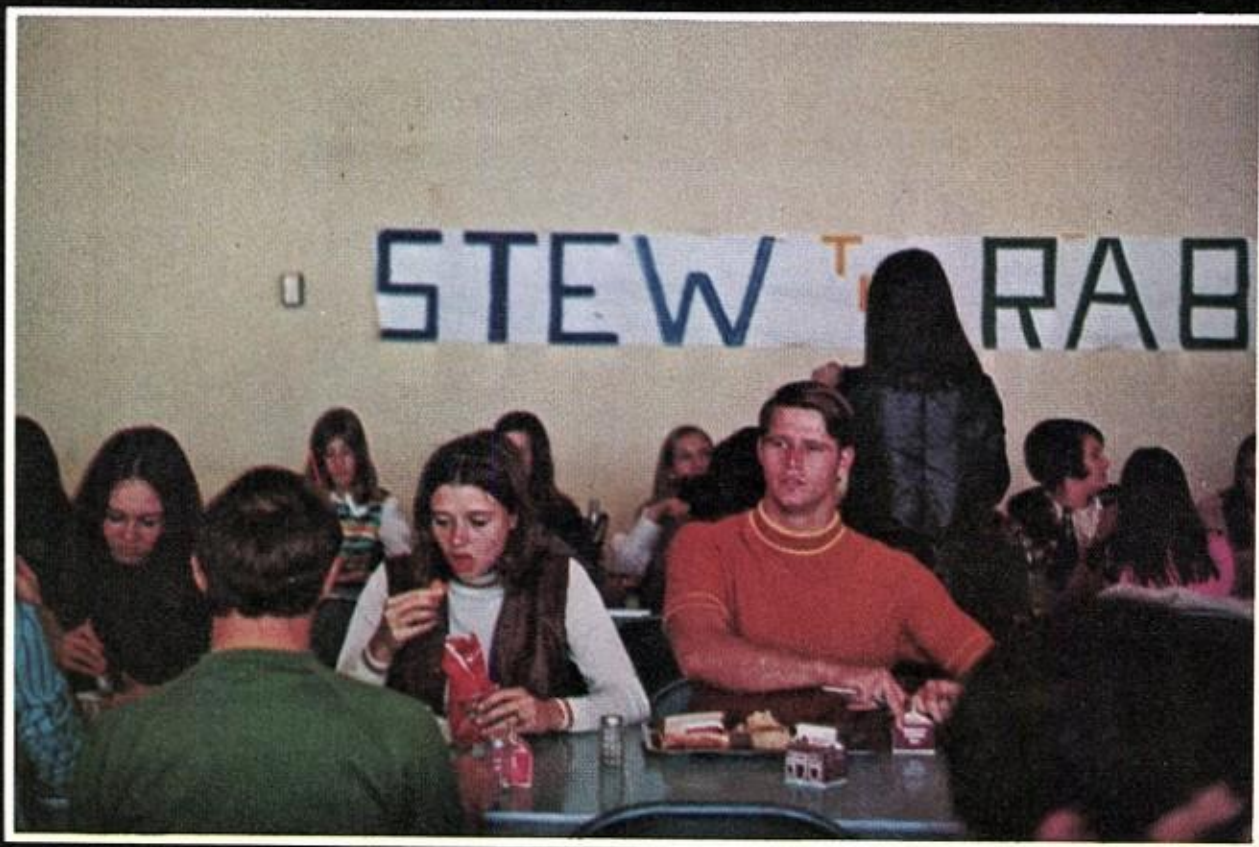

Being number two,
of course,
I had to try harder,
but at last
I had someone to look down on.

I Knew My Hour Was Coming . . .

There was little time to look in any direction
but straight ahead.

I suddenly realized I Wasn't A Kid Anymore, and that there were many things to do before next year.

But the prospect of next year,
ever present, ever stronger, sustained me well.

When I Was A Senior . . .

I couldn't believe at first that I had really made it, but when the realization hit me
I wanted to sing,
 to shout,
 to dance,
To kiss the first person
in sight!

But the days passed, I noticed myself accumulating so many "last things,"
From my homecoming to those breath-taking last weeks of school

I Clutched The Moments Tightly,

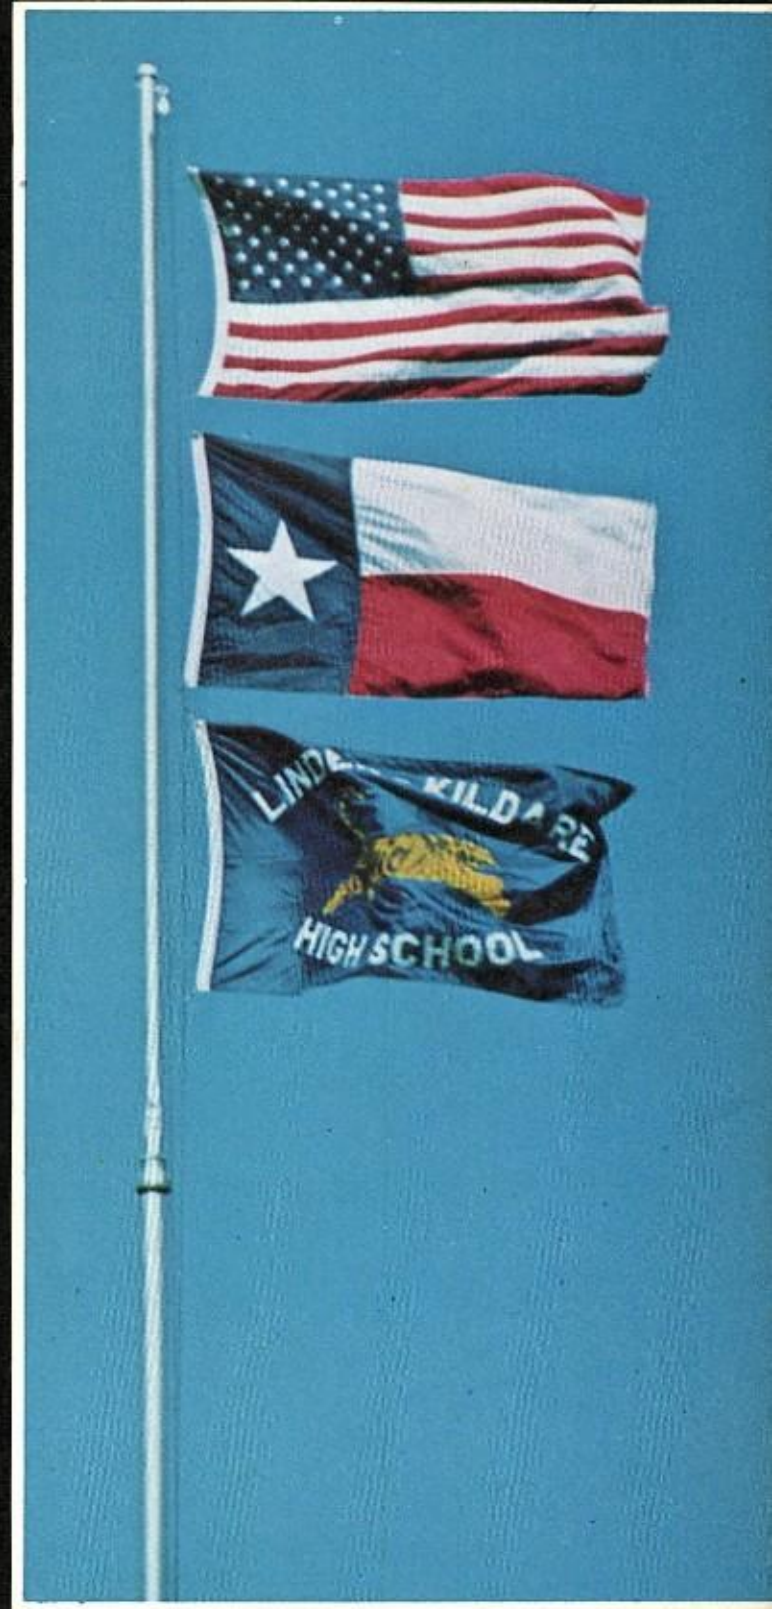

I cried to them, "Let me hold you a little while longer."
But they did not heed me.

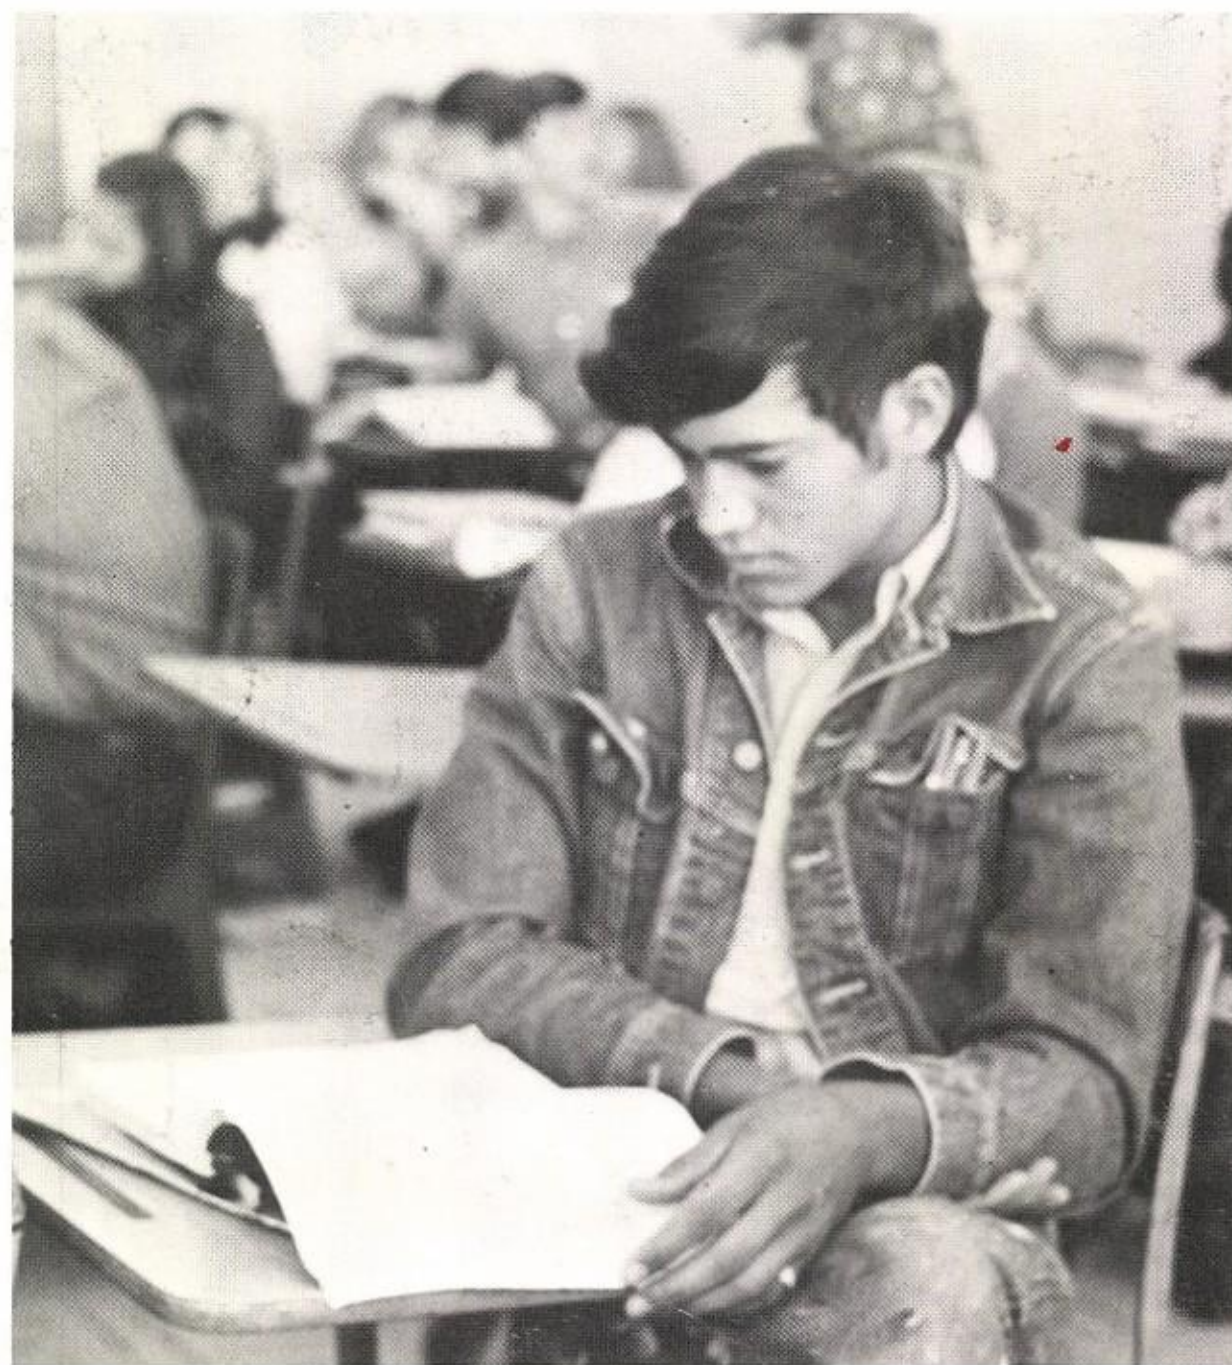

Doctor? Lawyer? Merchant? Chief?
What will be in the years ahead?

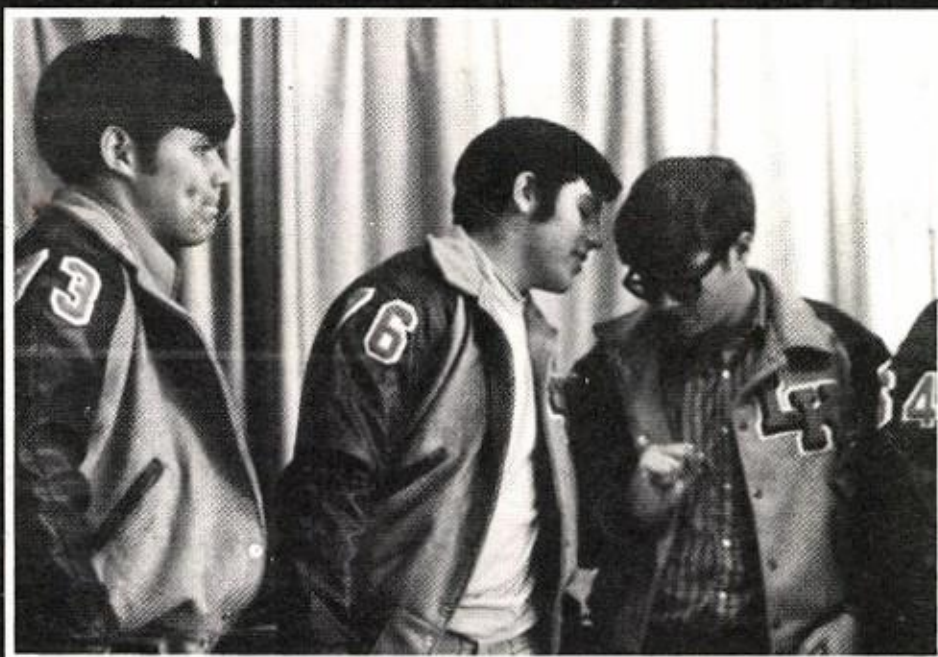

So many decisions must be made in so short a time,
But whatever I become ...

Only Time Will Tell!

A TIME FOR FUN

School Officially Opens On August 24th

V. Love and C. Epps sweep the halls.

M. Glenn, G. Fitts and H. T. Burrow enjoy a break.

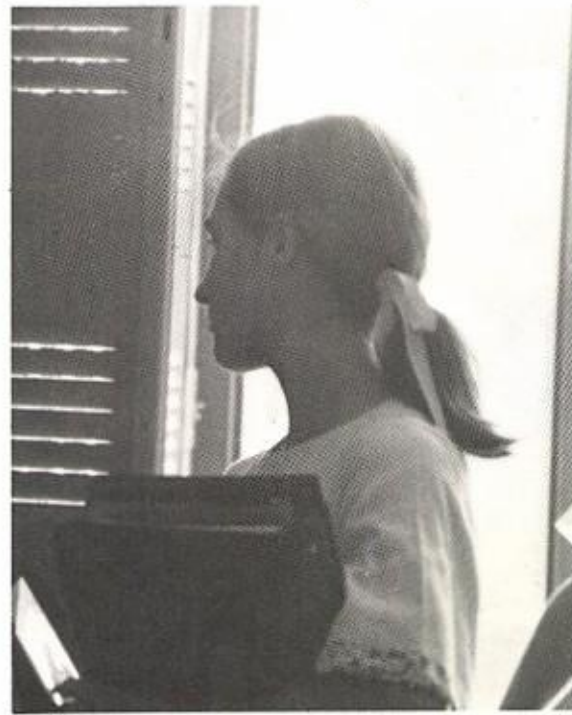

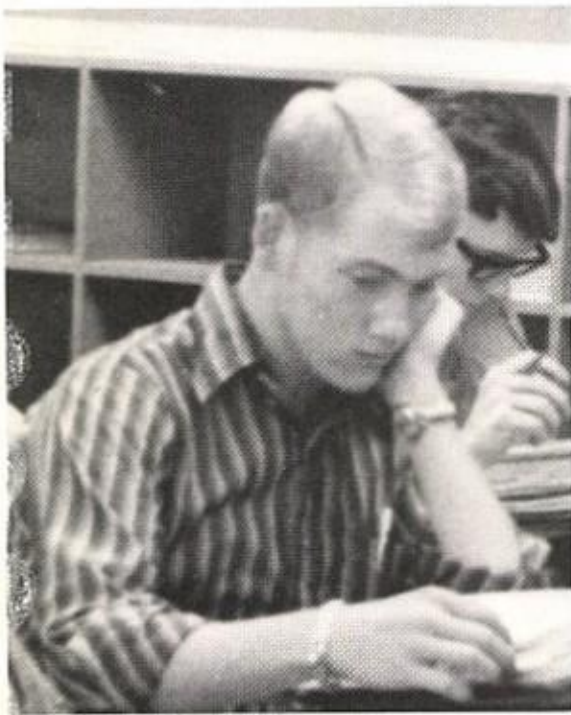

August is the month used for preparation. The '70-71 school year officially begins August 24, but work begins much earlier. Teachers come two weeks early to prepare for the students. Cheerleaders and majorettes attend camps and practice daily to prepare for the football games. Band practice is held twice a week, and football boys begin two-a-days. Finally, football begins with the Pittsburgh scrimmage.

Pep Rallies Bring Enthusiasm

In September students are finally getting back into the swing of school life. Seniors receive their long awaited class rings. After two scrimmage games the regular football season begins. Annual staffers attend workshop in Mt. Pleasant; FHA girls initiate new members; and agricultural students purchase calves for their school projects. The FHA girls also entertain the student body with a style show.

(Above) Patricia Sheffield presents the football players a horseshoe of mums for good luck on behalf of the cheerleaders and majorettes. (Far L.) R. Holland is seen studying for a test. (Left) L. Students Welcome Thanksgiving Holidays

Enthusiasm and spirit are reflected at L-K in November as the mighty Tigers become tri-district champs and kept rolling to regional play-offs. The Tigers break an eight year jinx by beating Atlanta 10 to 3 which was preceded by a car bash and car parade sponsored by the Student Council. The month is filled with other victories as the band wins first division rating at the UIL marching contest in Texarkana. Microscopes which had been expected in September finally arrived for the science students to use, and F. F. A. members hold their annual squirrel stew supper. Thanksgiving holidays arrive to give the students a break in routine.

Basketball Takes Over December

When basketball replaces football and coats replace sweaters, December has truly arrived. Seniors choose and order graduation invitations which, at last, are different from the ones traditionally used. Football jackets arrive for the boys who first lettered this year and award placks for second and third year lettermen. Various clubs hold parties to celebrate the approaching holidays. Semester exams are taken; Santa Claus visits the school; and students shuffle home for a two-week vacation.

January Begins Second Semester

With New Year's Day over, students come back to school in January to find another full semester awaiting them. The basketball team finishes second in the district. FFA boys attend a district meeting at Paul Pewitt while the FHA girls honor the teachers with a morning tea. Students are entertained with a talent show featuring members of the student body. Seniors feverishly begin work on their class play, Hip Hip Hippy Hooray.

When the Student Council Sweetheart Tree overflows with hearts, students know the romantic month of February has arrived. The Valentines Day spirit is promoted by the selling and distribution of carnations. Seniors present their class play. Spring sports begin with track and girls volleyball. Athletes are honored with an All-Sports Banquet. Juniors order their rings for next year. Members of the band participate in the All-District Band concert. Student Council members attend the annual forum which was held in Commerce. Patricia Sheffield and Gary Hays are named Mr. and Mrs. L-K High.

March — The Month Of Elections

Catchy campaign slogans, enthusiastic campaigners and walls plastered with posters hit L-K HS in March during the weeks of Cheerleader and officer elections. Band members attend Solo and Ensemble contest in Longview and present an annual concert in which all the people of the town are invited. The girls volleyball team wins the first round of regional play-offs. Seniors choose students to fill "L-K's Hall of Fame." A late snow brings on several snowball fights. The Annual Staff mails in pages to complete their second deadline.

Juniors And Seniors Work On Themes

April is the time for the FHA and FFA's Mother-Daughter and Parent-Son Banquet. Seniors work diligently to finish their research papers. The Student Council holds an outdoor political rally---complete with campaign speeches and posters, in support of the bond election. The paper staff is awarded the highest honor a high school paper can receive in UIL. The Band attends playing and sight reading contest in Kilgore and makes a first division in both, thus, making it a Sweepstakes Band. The Top Ten graduates are announced with Brenda Henderson being named Valdictorian and Brenda Boon, Salutatorian.

F. Washington, S. Glover, and G. Fitts take a break.

June Evans, Emily Braswell, and Rose Ragsdale look up references for term themes.

Mr. Hetherington is caught while eating lunch.

J. Sasser and K. W. Brown work in the Agricultural shop.

Many Students Honored At Awards Assembly

All the excitement and busy activity of the school year is climaxed in May, the month when Seniors finally reach their twelve year goal. They are honored and entertained all month as they enjoy their banquet, (prepared especially for them by the Juniors), proudly receive graduation invitations, and participate in the awards assembly. The National Honor Society inducts its new members with an impressive installation ceremony. Juniors finish term research papers. The Band leaves Thursday, May 13, for a fun-filled week-end in Pensacola, Florida. Majorette try-outs begin the Band's preparation for the coming year. Graduation, Friday, May 28, brings a close to a very full year at L-K.

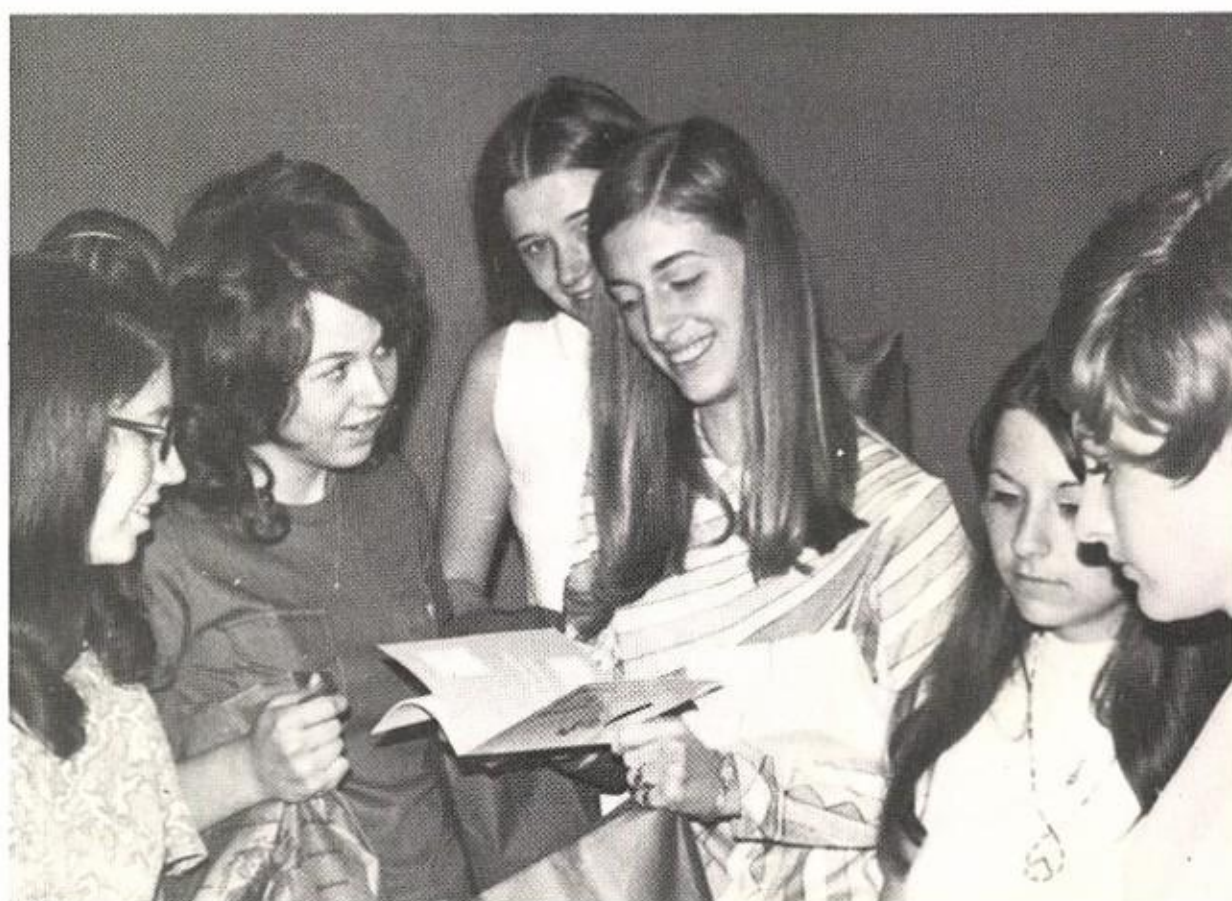

Juniors, D. Jones, R. Smith, D. Latham, D. Hamilton, and D. Finley pay for and pick up their Senior rings.

Mrs. Humphrey is seen having a little fun.

Mary Sue Epps seems excited about getting out of school.

R. Ragsdale, B. Boon, L. Lanier, D. Garrett, B. Barron, and J. Owens receive their graduation invitations.

Juniors Honor Graduates With Banquet

A TIME TO BE HONORED

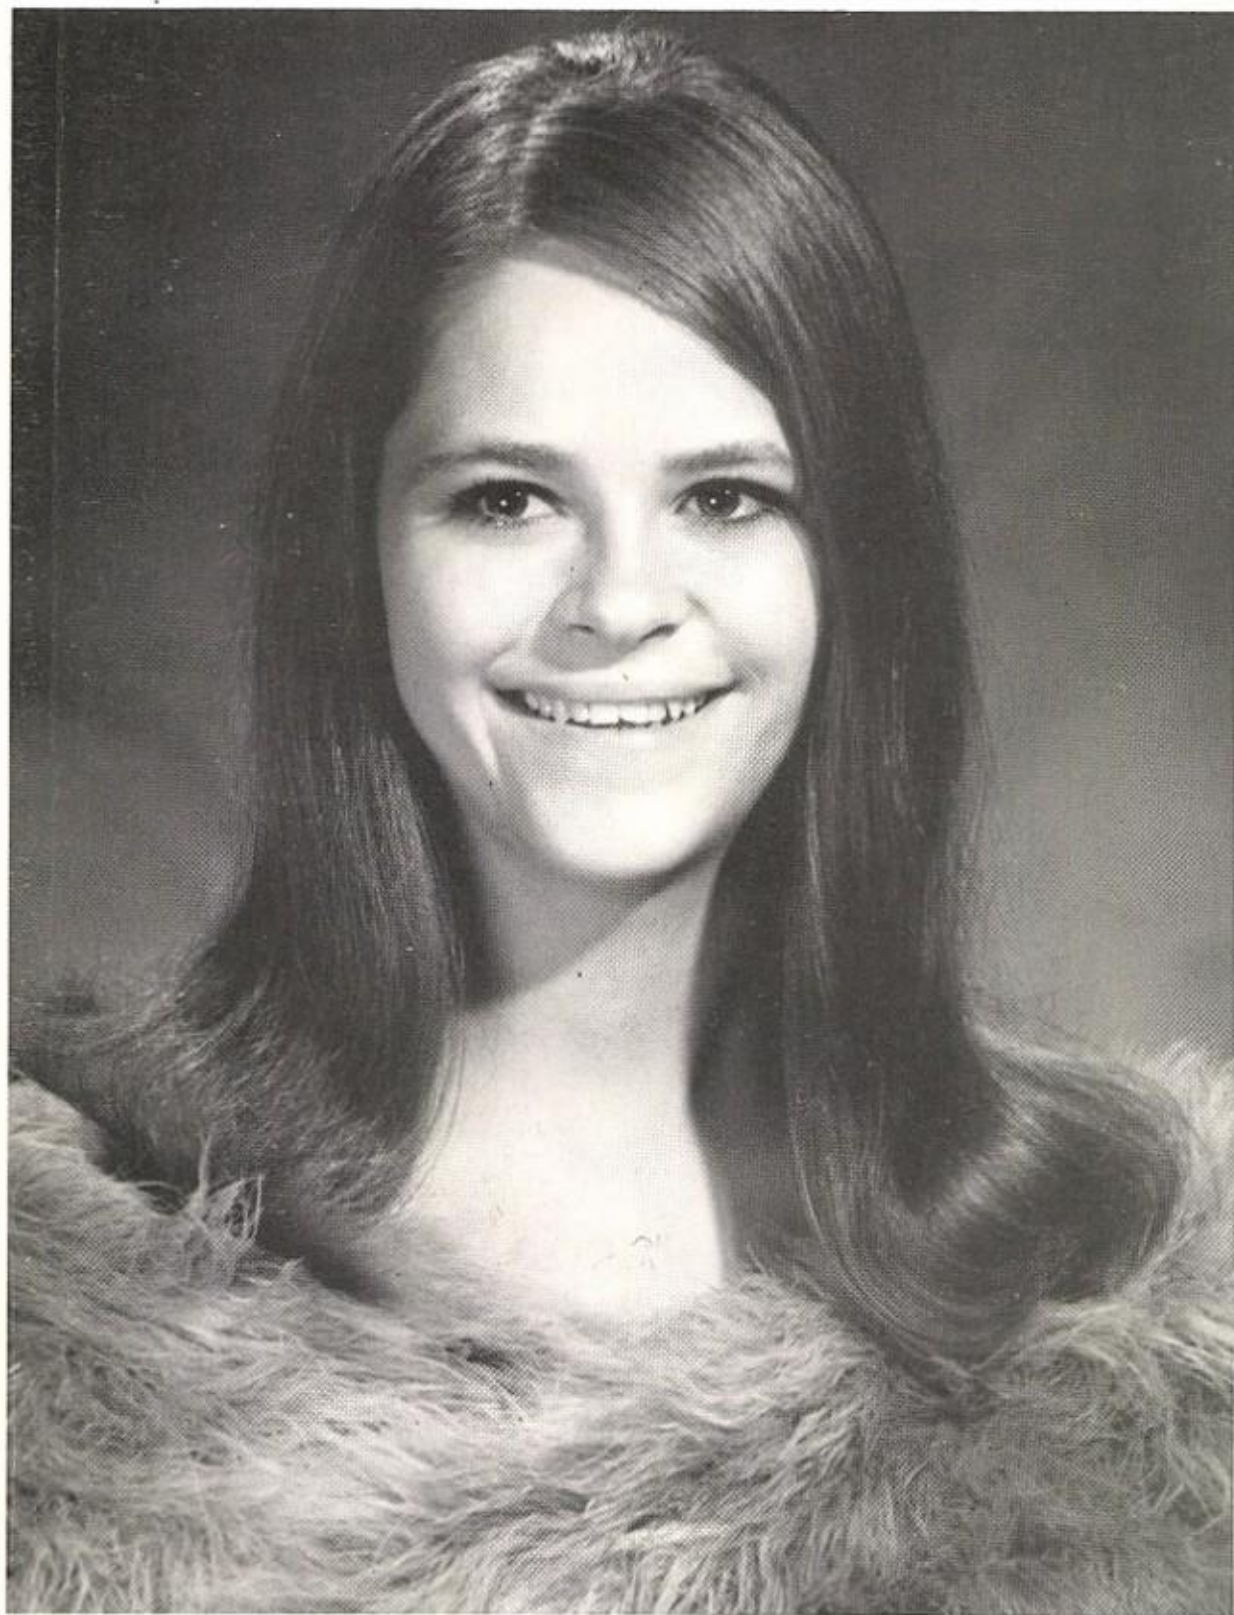

Mr. L-K High — Gary Hays

GARY HAYS was chosen by the student body as Mr. L-K High. The title of Mr. L-K High is bestowed upon the most popular boy of the senior class. Gary has been an active member of the Future Farmers of America for three years. He has also lettered in football for two years, and was named to the all-district team this year.

Miss L-K High — Patricia Sheffield

PATRICIA SHEFFIELD has been awarded the honor of being Miss L-K High for the 1971 school year. She was selected by secret ballot by the entire student body. She is a senior member of the band and has served as majorette for three years. She is also head majorette this year. Patricia has been a member of the all-district band for two years and was a band sweetheart nominee this year. She has served as junior and senior class secretary and president of the French club. She is a member of the library club and is on the student council.

Boys' And Girls' State Delegates

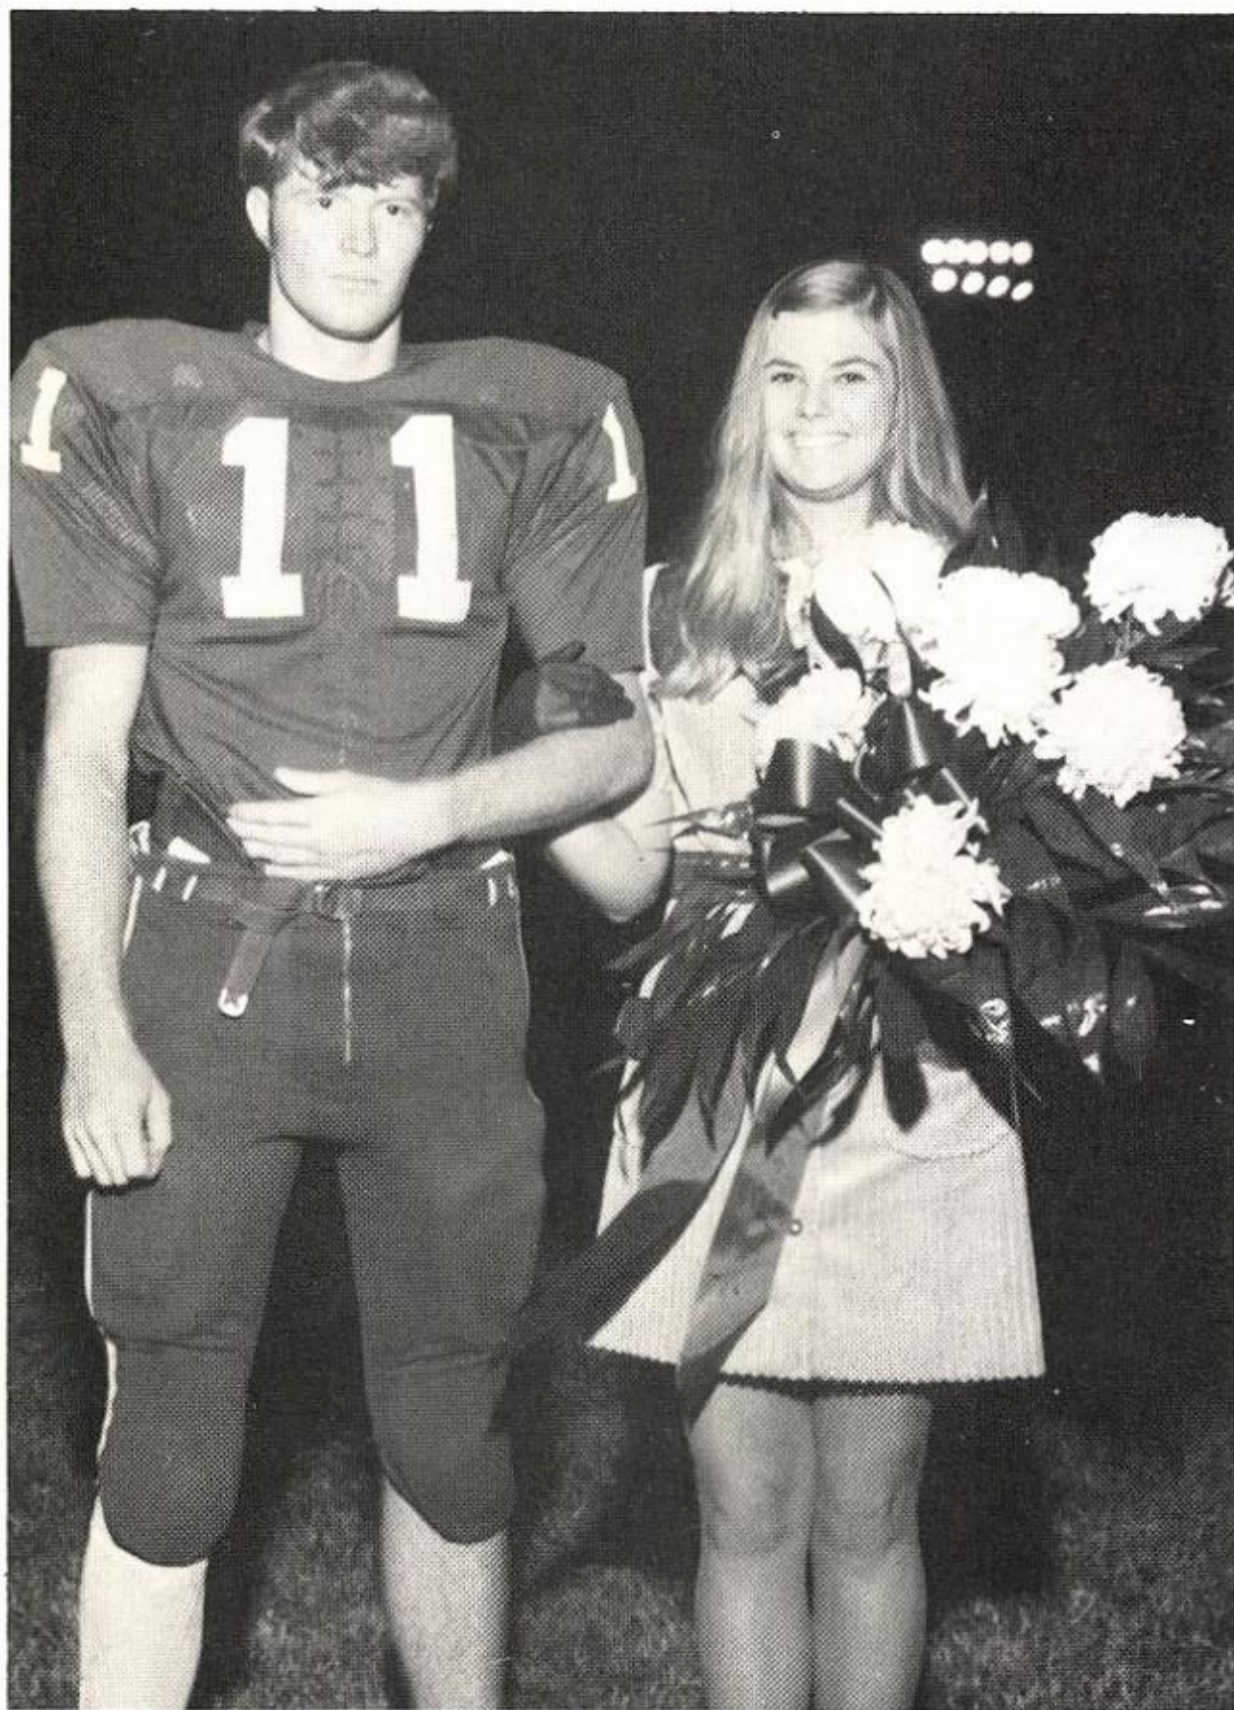

Students are chosen during their junior year of high school to attend Bluebonnet Girls' State and American Legion Boys' State. These students are selected on the basis of leadership, scholarship, initiative, and personality.

The delegates learn the fundamentals of local, county and state governments. They learn by setting up a fifty-first state with a two-party system. They then participate in the state's legislature and elections of all the officials.

A TIME FOR SERIOUSNESS

Summer Deadline Used For First Time

For staff members the school year begins in the summer, when they sell ads and plan the yearbook dummy. After school starts, members cover club meetings, sports events, and other school activities. They work frantically up until the eve of a deadline making sure layouts and stories are completed and checked. After the final deadline, staff members hold their breath and worry until mid August, when the '71 Tiger Tracks are issued, and they can finally see the fruit of their labors.

Sheri Glover contemplates over pictures and how to draw them on the layout sheets.

Ruan Trumble looks at pictures she has taken and gets pointers on how to improve them.

Lesa Lanier and Mary Brown type up pages for advertisements and classes.

The Linden-Kildare Student Council has performed activities throughout this year that have proved beneficial to the students.

During the fall semester, the student council sponsored dances after several home ball-games. A talent show was also held which was very entertaining for all. An informative assembly was held in which a NASA speaker related an interesting and educational program.

In February, the student council officers and several members attended the annual Student Council Spring Forum which this year was held in Commerce, Texas. At the forum, the council participated in the various workshops which were educational.

NHS: Study — The Key To Achievement

Membership in the NHS is one of the most rewarding scholastic achievements for a junior or senior. Character, leadership, scholarship, and service are the basis on which members of the society are accepted. In 70-71 12 members were inducted. During early May, they joined the other 10 members at an initiation candlelight ceremony in the cafeteria. Only students whose scholastic averages are above 90 can be considered for membership in the Honor Society.

Sweepstakes Band

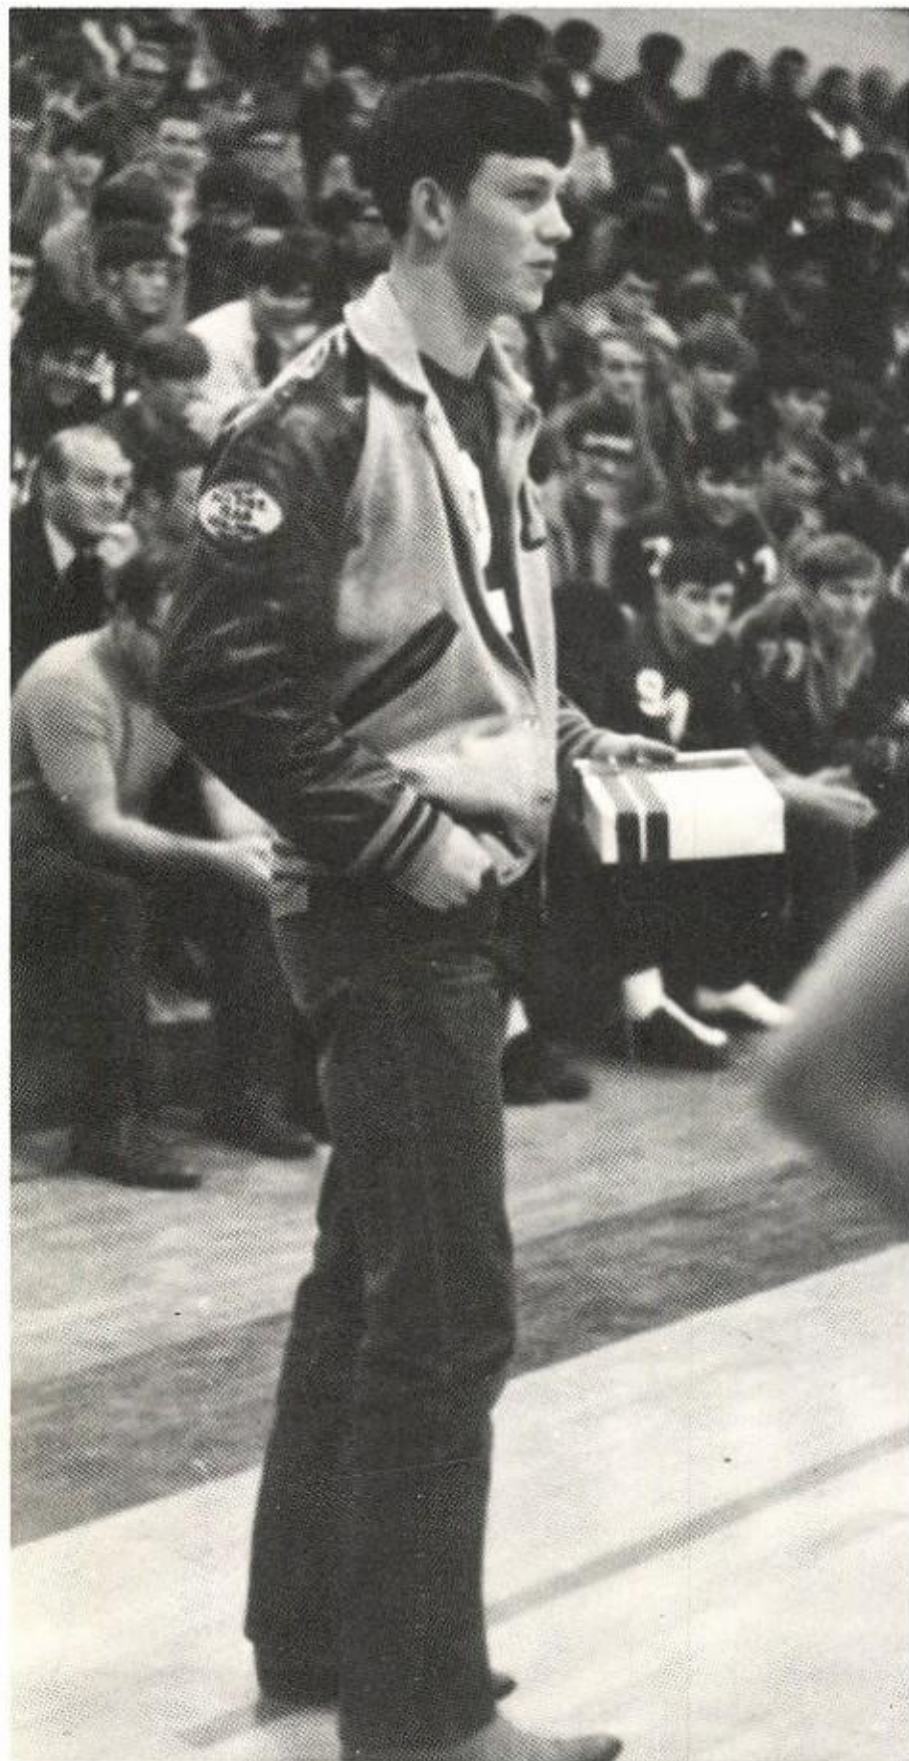

Dedication and loyalty were demonstrated as the band members worked long hours in an effort to make our band one of the best. The band perfected not only instrumentation but also marching skills, thus lending much spirited support to the school sports program and community affairs. This marked the second consecutive year our band was Sweepstakes. Last year was the first time our school has ever achieved this high honor.

Supports Winning Tigers

Sparked by Linden-Kildare's winning football season, the 1970 Pep Squad added much to the Tiger pep rallies and games with their tremendous enthusiasm. This great spirit was evidenced by the plastered walls covered by bright, colorful posters throughout the season and game hoops - "Straight to State!"

This year the club chose Defensive Back Joe Hamilton, one of the Captains for the Tiger Team, as their beau. Mary Echols, who served this year as President for the organization, was announced as Most Valuable Member in the Hooks pep rally. For the second consecutive year, Mr. Rodney Love was selected as the Honorary Member. He travels with the pep squad to all of the out-of-town games and is a favorite of the entire student body.

One of the money-making projects was selling sweatshirts. Money raised by the members is used to send the newly elected cheerleaders to camp each summer.

Mr. Rodney Love, Honorary Member, contributes to sweatshirt sales. (B. Burson, M. Echols)

Captains

JAMES BARKER JOE HAMILTON CHARLIE EPPS

The captains are three outstanding players, elected by the team, to give leadership. These men were the representatives of the Tiger team. They set the example which the rest of the team was to follow. These men put out 100% effort and thereby excelled in their assignments. They set the pace which led to a bi-district championship.

The Tigers began their season in August, with workouts designed to prepare them mentally and physically for the long, hard season ahead. The Tigers started their season of play with a victory over Queen City and another over Hallsville, before they met their first setback at Paul Pewitt. The Tigers supplied an exciting finish to the Paul Pewitt game, but could not connect for the winning points. They then demolished Jefferson before closing pre-district with a loss to West Rusk. When the Tigers entered district play, they had visions of the crown and set out to win it. Hughes Springs proved to be little opposition, but the Tigers had to play hard to win their homecoming game against New Boston. The next week, L-K took its only district loss as several lucky breaks gave the game to DeKalb. However, the Tigers came on strong against their arch-rival, Atlanta, and on Friday, November 13, defeated Hooks and won a three way toss with Atlanta and DeKalb to play in the state playoffs. In the Bi-District game Winnsboro fell to the Tigers. L-K went to Regional, Ready to beat Wills Point, but a brilliant last-minute effort fell short and the Tigers' season ended, with an 8-4 record and a Bi-District Championship.

And Then Launched Their Season.

The Tigers finished their best season in years with an 8-4 record and the bi-district championship. The team had talent both in players and coaches, and a lucky penny credited with a district championship. The Tigers broke an eight year jinx by beating Atlanta 10-3, and finished a great season with a disappointing loss in the Regional playoff.

An official signals a Tiger score against Hallsville.

QUEEN CITY ... In their season opener the Tigers combined an offense that scored in every period with a defense that allowed only one touchdown and came up with a crushing defeat for the Bulldogs.

HALLSVILLE ... The Tigers met tougher opposition in their second game, but again dominated. The Bobcats were handed a 35-13 defeat.

PAUL PEWITT ... It was defensive play all night as rain and injuries combined to slow all offense and to crush a last minute Tiger attempt to come from behind to win.

And Open District With A Win.

JEFFERSON ... After a first quarter touchdown by the quarter the game turned into another defensive battle until the Tigers exploded for three last period touchdowns and a 27-0 victory.

WEST RUSK ... Two first quarter touchdowns and a fourth quarter field goal gave the Raiders the victory over a determined Tiger defense.

HUGHES SPRINGS ... The Tigers opened district with outstanding play by both offense and defense. The result was a 27-6 victory over the Mustangs.

Harry Rhyne (85) downs a Mustang.

Henry Heath (31) is finally stopped.

L-K Loses To DeKalb, But . . .

NEW BOSTON ... The Tigers homecoming game was wet, but happy. A muddy field and a wet ball slowed the game, but a tough defense brought the Tigers their second district win.

DeKALB ... The Tigers came on strong by scoring on their first possession, but after that, luck was with the Bears as the Tigers took their only district defeat, 20-7.

ATLANTA ... L-K's arch-rival received their first defeat at the hands of the Tigers in eight years, as they were stunned 10-3.

HOOKS ... Friday the 13th was good luck to L-K as the Tigers defeated Hooks 28-14 in the rain, and won a three-way coin toss for a state playoff berth.

WINNSBORO ... In the Bi-District game, the Tigers came from behind for a 15-7 win. The defense was at its best as it stopped the Raiders four times inside the Tiger 20.

WILLS POINT ... L-K was trailing at halftime 19-0, but exploded in the second half to score three touchdowns and come within three points of a Regional Championship.

Due to injuries and forfeiture, the Tiger junior varsity did not play their entire schedule. The junior varsity had hard workouts without being able to put their talents on display many times. Although their season record was not impressive, there is much behind the scenes that is not seen. In the five games which the junior varsity played, they gained valuable experience that could only be obtained by playing a team from another school. The lessons that were learned during this season will be helpful through the years to come.

It was the Freshmen's first year at high school, and although they did not have a winning season, they improved each game. This improvement showed itself in the closing games as the Freshmen won two and tied their last game. Even though they lost their first five games, they did not lose their spirit, their determination, nor their will to win. Next year some of these players will join the varsity squad, and some will probably spend a year on the junior varsity; but wherever they play, they will be better players for learning what it is to come from defeat to victory.

The Starting Five

The players who make the Varsity are the "best" players on the team. This "best" greatly is based on attitude, hustle, ability, knowledge of the game, and the desire to win. A player must exhibit all of these qualities, and he must have the correct mental approach to the game and strive through practice to improve his mechanics and knowledge of the game. The willingness to work hard, hustle all of the time, and desire to always win is something that a player must develop. Some have this greatly; others do not. The winners do. The ones on the squad who excel in these qualities more than the others are the five who play and give every ounce of effort they can muster because they love the game and they have instilled in them that certain "pride" which takes over when they become tired and pushes them on and tells them, "You don't quit or let up - you're a winner."

The L-K girls volleyball team did very well this year, as they had a season record of 9 wins and 6 losses. In the course of the year, the "A" team placed second in the L-K tourney and the "B" team won consolation in the Atlanta and L-K tournaments. Among the other honors to come to the team were Gail Rhyne making the All Tournament team in Atlanta and the team making it to the regional finals. The girls did a fine job under a great coach, and are looking forward to another winning season next year.

Baseball Season 6-5

Baseball Scores

Under the guidance of Coach Albert Tiller, the L-K baseball team finished their season with a 6-5 record. After defeating the Hooks Hornets once, 2-1; the Tigers had to play them again, tied for the district title. However, in this, the last game of the regular season, the Tigers were unable to repeat their performance. They closed the season with a dissappointing 4-1 loss and second place in the district.

A TIME TO TEACH

Planning Is A Continuing Task

Educator and Administrator, W. A. Parker likes to know what people are doing and keeps in touch with the activities of each individual as his time and ability permit. Planning for present and future improvement is a continuing task with the Board, staff, and school patrons. With a total enrollment of approximately 1200 students in the Linden-Kildare school system, a superintendent's job of coordination between school and community is never finished. As a part of his duties, he also deals with a budget and operating expenses, expansion, and renovation, accreditation requirements, and the needs and distribution of a professional staff for all four schools. The supreme aim of the administration is to help people develop their potentials to the fullest and to increase productivity.

Mr. W. A. Parker, Supt.

B.S., M. Ed., Stephen F. Austin

MRS. EMORY JONES
Tax Assessor and Collector

MRS. JOHN PENNY
Secretary

School Board

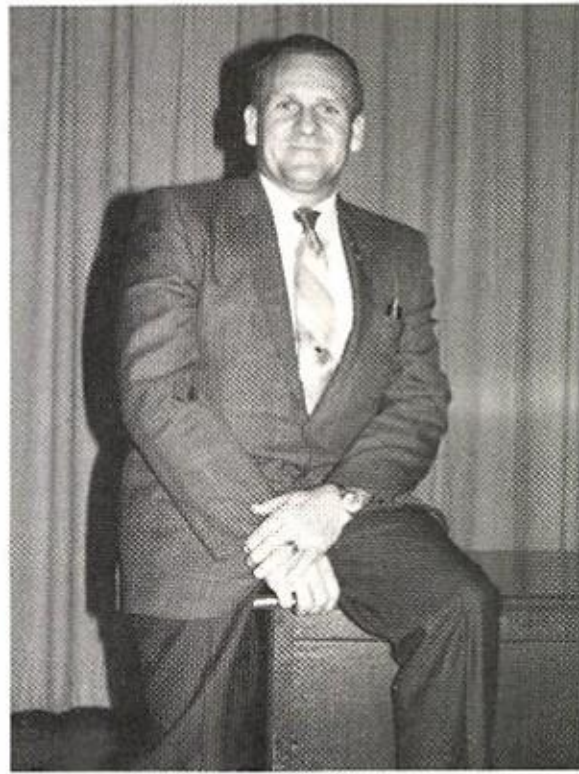

Aiming to improve the Linden-Kildare school system, seven Linden and Kildare businessmen served on the Board of Education during the 1970-71 school year.

Headed by President Kenneth Lee and Superintendent of Schools, W. A. Parker, the Board members worked without salary to improve our school system.

The Board members managed the budget, planned the school calendar, and dealt with school business at their regular monthly meetings. Gaining much interest from the community, the Board worked with the Elementary schools, the Junior High School and L-KHS to provide a well-equipped and well-staffed public school system for the Linden-Kildare district.

MR. JERRY D. WHATLEY

MR. JAMES W. SURRATT

Principals Strive To Better L-K

Striving to maintain harmony among the students and faculty members, these men work diligently for improvements in our school. Besides attending PTA meetings and various school activities, they spend much time talking with students and disciplining them when necessary.

MR. JACK HETHERINGTON, M. Ed.
High School Principal.

MR. DALE CARTER, B. S.
Junior High School

Principal.

MR. G. C. FORD, M. Ed.
Elementary School
Principal.

Our school nurse, Mrs. Jerry Harp, was handy when needed to administer first aid to hurt or ill students. Besides being available in emergencies, Mrs. Harp helped LK students by giving eye tests and hearing tests.

P.T.A. Pot Stew — Main Project

MRS. JERRY HARP, B.S.
School Nurse

The P.T.A. objectives are to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community, and to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child. The P.T.A. also helps to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

P.T.A. Officers

Whether the case was problem students or students with problems, our capable counselor at Linden-Kildare was always ready with advice and guidance. Students of all three classifications sought the help of Mrs. OPAL ROBINSON. Experienced in all areas of counseling, she was eager to listen to each individual student.

MR. BRYCE ALLEN TRUMBLE, B. S.
English I and II.
Junior Class Sponsor.

MRS. SAM WARREN, B. A.
English II and III.
Senior Class Sponsor.

Themes, book reports, and class notes all make up a part of the complex world of English. Freshmen are kept busy memorizing poetry, while Sophomores tangle with Julius Caesar. Juniors study the Illiad and Seniors work on the Odyssey and Macbeth. The study of life through literature is advanced through required outside reading. This also helps the student to develop the ability to study independently. Vocabulary and grammar are stressed to give English students a better command of the language.

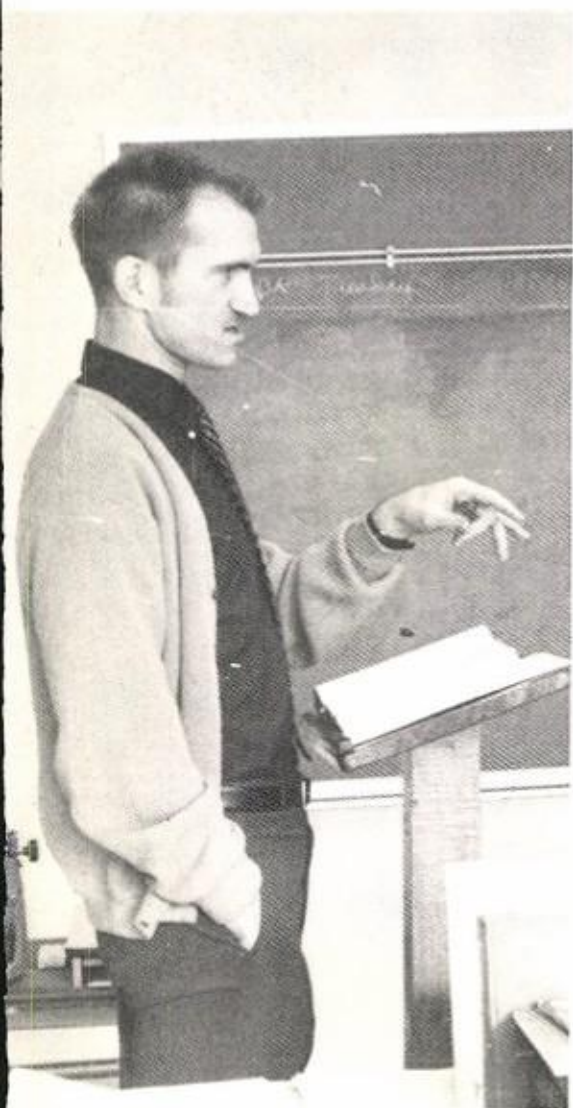

Mrs. Warren talks to Sophomores.

Typing I and II, General Business,
Tiger Talk Sponsor.

MRS. JIM SURRETT, M. Ed.
Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Health,
and Business Mathematics,
Annual Staff Sponsor.

As L-K grows, a greater need for trained men and women in the business world will continue. This is what the business education courses at L-K are all about. The courses provide the students an opportunity to gain working experience while they go to school. Projects in the department include Bookkeeping Practice Sets and projects in General Office Practice. Courses in General Business and Business Mathematics are designed to increase interest in the field of business and proficiency in office practice. The main objective of the department is to provide the student with those skills, knowledges, and attitudes needed to obtain an initial position in stenographic work.

Judy Owens writes in shorthand as Mrs. Surratt dictates.

Mrs. Parker tells Donna Buckland and class about interest rates.

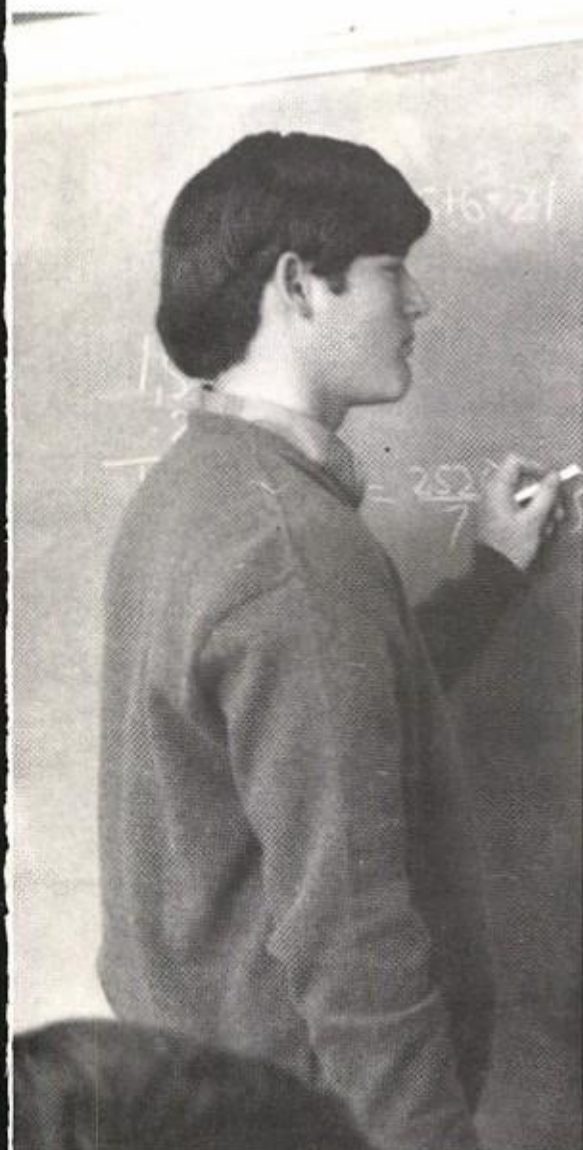

Shelly Bucy works on a typing assignment.

Students Become Acquainted With Business World

Gail Webster types manuscript to be on display during Public School Week.

Gary Yates works Business Math problems on board.

Mrs. Surratt instructs Gail Rhyne, Brenda Barron, Judy Owens, and Rose Ragsdale in the use of the new dictating machines.

Title I Program Is Going Strong

There are many general ideals of the Remedial Program of the Linden-Kildare Consolidated Independent School District. The teachers follow a plan of putting emphasis on word study, literature, library skills, location, comprehension, organization, interpretation, and other skills which have been found, through experience, to be beneficial for slow learners.

Efforts are also being made to teach skills in pronunciation, word building, word origin, noting significant details, predicting outcomes, summarizing, and skimming.

*Another year has come to a close.
It was the best of times.
It was the worst of times.
It was experienced moments
now turned into memories.*

*For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven; . . .*

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
